

HOME BASED ACTIVITIES

MOBILE APP

HOME BASED ACTIVITIES

- Children with special needs have many issues which create problem in their learning & development.
- Children require attention in order to learn things.
- Therapies are ultimate solution.
- Therapies consists of many activities aiming child to teach some skill or behavior.
- Child spend most of his/her time in family.
- Parents are required to be train and empower to cater child needs.

ISSUES

- Poor attention span.
- Poor sitting span.
- Poor gripping.
- Poor coordination.
- Poor concept building.
- Poor organizational skill.

TYPES OF ACTIVITIES

- ❑ BEADING: This is simple one all you need some colorful beads and thread and demonstrate child how beading is done later ask child to perform.
- ❑ SORTING: Another fun exercise where all you need to do collect some onion, tomatoes or potatoes take two baskets and now ask child to place onion in one and potatoes in another.
- ❑ TEARING AND PASTING: Grab some waste paper give it to child to tear and then paste on paper.

- ❑ CLAY ACTIVITY: Take some clay and give it to child to play with or make different forms or shapes from clay.
- ❑ SAND TRAY: Place sand in front of child and ask child to play with it or draw figures on it, write numbers or alphabets on it.
- ❑ CLIP ACTIVITY: Take one card-board and ask child to place clips on it one by one later remove clips one by one.

BENEFITS

- Improves attention.
- Improves sitting.
- Enhance problem solving.
- Enhances muscle coordination.
- Enhances organization.
- Enhances concept building.
- Ensure child participation.

THANK YOU